The Proteſtant Remembrancer, by Way of INTRODUCTION.

JUST now, at the Writing hereof, is arrived the News of the Death of Clement the Twelfth, the moſt holy Father in God, Sovereign Pontiff of Rome. And as a Novelty, we ſhall here give an authentic Account of the Intrigues among the Cardinals, who aſſemble in the Conclave to chuſe a new Pope, which may not be unacceptable to our Readers.

When a Pope dies, Notice is given to the People, by the Sound of a Bell from the Capital, which is never Rung but on this Occaſion; after which four Cardinals of different Orders, take the Adminiſtration of the Government upon them, viz. the Dean or firſt Cardinal Biſhop; the firſt Cardinal Prieſt, the firſt Cardinal Deacon, and the Cardinal Chamberlain: The latter ſends for all the Clerks of the Apoſtolical Chamber, and repairing in great State to the Palace, views the Pope's Body, to ſee if he be infallibly dead, and in Preſence of the three other Cardinals, takes off the Fiſherman's Ring from his Finger, which is the Great Seal of the Church, breaks it in two, and then conſulting with the other Cardinals, gives Directions about the Corps and Funeral of the Deceaſed, which he orders to be embalmed, clothed with his Pontifical Habit, and carried in Proceſſion, with extraordinary Pomp and Ceremony, to St Peter's Church, where he is laid for a few Days upon a Bed of State, and the People are admitted to kiſs his Foot through Iron Rails.

At the ſame Time they chuſe a new Governor of Rome, or confirm the old one; declare the Governors of the Palace and Conclave, and read the Bull for executing the Laws and Statutes, during the Vacancy of the Holy See.

There

There is another Remarkable Attending the Death of a Pope, which we muſt not omit, viz. that one of the City Marſhals goes forth, with the Banner of the People of Rome, and releaſes all Priſoners committed for light Offences: Where Note, That the Death of a Pope is not a Panpharmacon, to be apply'd to all Sorts of Crimes; for though it be allowed by the Sacred College to have a redemptive Force, yet it is limited to ſuch Enormities only as are capable of Human Forgiveneſs.

The Popes are generally interr'd in moſt Sumptuous Mauſoleums; which ſhew that they have a mighty Value for their Bones, and think their Duſt and Aſhes worthy to be eterniz'd to Poſterity. But what ſignifies a Pompous Tomb, though as wonderful as Mamnon's, where the Day Beams of the Sun were ſo many Keys, and Phœbus play'd on the Harpſichord? I ſay, what ſignifies a glorious Monument to a Manſion in Heaven? Magnificent Sepulchres on Earth add nothing to the Quality of a Saint in Cœlo Empyræo. This is true, but Highneſſes and Eminencies, that doat ſo much upon the Splendors of this World, and admire the gaudy Shews of outward Ornaments, deſire to have their dead Bones as well cloathed, as their living Bodies.

Now for the Preliminaries of the Conclave, or Aſſembly of Cardinals that meet to elect the Pope.

This is a Time when there are a Thouſand Surmizes, Conjectures, and Diſcourſes, whoſe Turn it will be next to procure the Widow Church a new Spouſe, and to ſupply the wide Chaſm: To which purpoſe, Cabal, Faction, and Intrigue, are as buſy at Rome as Ants in Summer! Strange Prelude to a ſecret Conclave! Conſidering that it is a Maxim and Doctrine of the Roman Catholic Church, as immutable as the Courſe of the Earth, that the Holy Ghoſt preſides at the Election of a Pope; that it is one of his moſt glorious Works, Works, and that he will infallibly chuſe the very Perſon, whom he ſhall judge moſt meet to govern the Church, according to his unchangeable Decrees, and Eternal Deſigns. Now an ordinary Chriſtian would think there were no need of Faction and Cabal to aſſiſt the Holy Ghoſt in the Management of ſo great an Undertaking, and that Canvaſſing and Intriguing, were no fit Companions for the third Perſon of the Bleſſed Trinity.

After the Funeral Ceremonies, (which laſt Nine Days in Maſſes and Prayers for the Deceaſed), the Secret College repair on the Tenth Day to St Peter's Church, to celebrate the Maſs of the Holy Ghoſt, when a Speech is frequently made upon the future Election of the Pope, which never wants Invectives againſt Intrigues and Factions, and contending with the Holy Ghoſt, all to no Purpoſe: And at the ſame Time an Exhortation is given to the Cardinals to be careful of advancing to the Pontificate, a Perſon every Way qualified for that Dignity.

After this, the Maſter of the Ceremonies takes the Croſs, preceded by the Muſicians, who ſing the Hymn to the Holy Ghoſt, as being the peculiar Perſon of the Trinity, who is to be the interior and inviſible Governor of the Conclave. Then follows the Cardinals, Two and Two, like ſo many Monks, or inferior Prieſts, in Proceſſion, and in that Manner prepare to the Place conſecrated for the Election of a Pope, which depends upon the Cardinals Choice, but has for a conſiderable Time been always done in the Vatican, where there are Cells made with Boards for every Cardinal, who chuſe them by Lots, to prevent thoſe of a Faction from being altogether in any one Part of the Conclave. They are all built in a long Gallery of the Palace, number'd, diſtinguiſh'd by each Cardinal's Coat of Arms, and hung on the Outſide with green Serge or Camblet: But the Favourites of the Deceaſed, or thoſe promoted by him, cover theirs with Cloth of a deep Violet Colour.

When the Cardinals, (of whom there are Seventy in Number, viz. Fifty Cardinal Priests, Fourteen Cardinal Deacons, and Six Cardinal Bishops,) are arrived in the Conclave, the Cardinal Dean says some Prayers in Sextus Quintus's Chapel; after which every one takes his Place, and the Master of the Ceremonies having dismissed, as Prophane, all that are not Members of the Conclave, the Doors are shut, for the Security and Quiet of the Electors, and to keep out Cabal and Partiality. Now the Cardinals are shut up seperately, with only an Abbot, or other Clergyman to attend them, who is therefore called a Conclavist, and receives their Diet in at a Window.

The Cardinals are obliged to meet every Morning and Evening, in the Vatican Chapel, for a Scrutiny, which is done by writing their Suffrages in little Billets, done up in two Folds, and sealed with two Seals: When the Billets are ready, the Cardinals put them into a Chalice, (after a short Prayer) upon the Altar, and appoints two of their Number to read the Names of the Cardinals aloud, and keep an Account of the Number of Votes for each, and this they do 'till two thirds fall upon one and the same Person, and then he is pronounced Pope duly Elected. Then the Master of the Ceremonies carries him the News, and then he is brought to the Chapel, cloathed with the Pontifical Robes, and receives the Adoration of the Cardinals. After which he is crown'd with a Tripple Crown, gives his general Blessing, and then enters upon the Government.

A HYMN to the POPE.

THE Imposture, Popery,
On no Foundation stands;
For on Christ's Rock it is not built,
But unconnected Sands.

Monthly Observat.

Annus Merabilis.

The Effects of the Malevolent Aspects and Configurations of the Cælestial Bodies in this Month are such, that all judicious Men will stand agast to see the Event of these cros and wrangling Oppositions of the Planets, we now fear much Variance, Discord, and Dissention amongst the Grandees: The three Superiors Retrograde, Plots, and ill Designs are carried on amongst a Sett of People, who aim at Things too much out of their Reach abroad, and we at home have cause to be Jealous of a Snake in the Gras; many die, some for Grief, and others by the Sword.

The 20th Day of this Month, 1706, was born his Royal Highness, Frederick Prince of Wales.

Saturn and Venus now begin to scoul,
The Air grows black and wet upon't, 'tis foul.
Whilst I thus mus'd, I thought I heard one say,
I would 'twould blow Oppression quite away.
Unto this Fancy, I fancy'd a Reply,
Oppression's not so light, nor Wind so high.

Swift footed Time expoſeth every Station,
Kingdoms and Men to ſudden Alteration:
Whilſt we poor Mortals, dare not ought gainſay,
We pray in Hope, contented are to play.
And when we think we're near our wiſh'd for Shore,
Freſh Furies drive us where we were before.

vernors Consultation

The first Part of this Month proves wond'rous fair,
Sol, Venus, Mercury, doth rule the Air.
Conjoyn'd in Gemini: Saturn doth repine,
To see the Sun so gloriously to shine.
He raiseth sable Clouds; would that were all,
I fear great Mischief on this earthly Ball.

Scurrillous Pamphlets are dispersed

On the 11th of this Month, 1727, was his present most Gracious Majesty's Accession to the Throne, and on the 15th day He was proclaimed King of Great Britain, &c. whom God grant long to reign.

Abroad, to the great Dishonour of well deserving Persons, and false Aspersions attend many eminent Men; Hypocrites or Dissemblers prove destructive to some who least fear them.

July hath XXXI Days.

The Sun with Jupiter being close combin'd,
Saturn with Venus also is conjoyn'd,
What's their Effects? 'tis Dog days, and no Wonder,
If fearful Lightnings chance with Rain and Thunder.
Whatever haps, I meddle not with Kings,
I would write high, but dare not trust my Wings.

Monthly Observat

Whoever views the Meetings and Aſpects of the Planets this Month, and ſtrictly obſerves their Aſpects, ſhall have Cauſe to predict, that Matters of ſuperlative Importance will now break forth: Several Marriages of Note are now on the Carpit; a certain Gownſman preferr'd and an old Stateſman in Favour with his Prince. ☌ is entred ♏, Paris beware he doth not brandiſh his glittering Sword within thy Walls. Many Intelligence from thoſe Places under Cancer and Leo, moleſt the Fancies and Minds of Men, this being a time fitter for Action than Counſels, yet we hope not much Blood ſhed.

August hath XXXI Days.

Pray what's the News? lets walk to the Exchange,
'Tis very dubious; nay, 'tis very ſtrange,
What ails Jack Spaniard? what is that to me?
Frenchmen they muſt act as well as he.
Theſe very Men are Fortune's Tennis Ball,
Now toſt aloft, now daſh'd againſt the Wall.

September hath XXX Days.

Here Mars and Venus both go Hand in Hand,
And Jove has Stilbone now at his Command.
They undisturb'd in Storm and Tempest rides,
And in small Barks by the calm Shore glides;
Whilst others proudly plow the brackish Main,
Lye Shipwreckt, and their Anchors cast in vain.

Should we enquire whence Powder Plots do come,
This Month's fifth Day points to the Place, tis Rome.
Enquire we where's the Seat of Mercy, where
The Throne of Justice? Look to Heaven, 'tis there.
Then be we thankful, and not seek to raise Remembrance of our Mercies out, 'tis base.

December hath XXXI Days.

The World is strangely chang'd, when I was young
Houſes were open, Poor to Rich did throng
And fared well; the Froſt did bind the Earth,
But now Heavens weep, and we have loſt our Mirth.
Seditious Pamphlets, Lawleſs-lines appear,
Tis dirty Weather, and ſo ends the Year.

Aſtrological Obſervations of the Year 1741.

Of the Brumal, or Winter Quarter.

WHICH begins this Year 1740 at London, December 10, at 41′ 24″ paſt 10 a Clock in the Forenoon, equal Time, but the apparent Time is 1′ 7″ later. At which Time and Place 12° of ♐ Culminates, and 18° ♒ Aſcends our Eaſtern Horizon; ♄ in ♌ R in the 6, ♃ in ♑ R in the 5, ♂ in ♌ R in the 6, ☿ R in the 11 Houſe in ♂ ☉ near Cauda, the Moon in ♈ in the 12 in her Detriment, and ♀ in ♏, Detrimented in the 8th Houſe of Heaven, ⊕ in the firſt intercepted in ♓, England Aſcendent is upon the Cuſp of the Second Houſe: This is the Face of Heaven at the Time of this melancholy Ingreſs, the Sun is now got to his greateſt South Declination, the Days are ſhort; Charity as well as the Weather, is Cold, all the ſuperior Planets are under the Earth Retrogade; many cloſe and ſubtile Conſultations ſeem now to be upon the Carpet, to the Diſadvantage of ſome People and Country; many Advantages may accrue to thoſe Places under ♈ and ♊, the Moon is near leaving the Sign Capricorn, much and weighty News arrives from Foreign Parts; our Fleet at Sea in a flouriſhing Condition, the very Name of which ſtrikes a Terror on our Enemies, who will fly like Chaff before the Wind; may we always be victorious, is, and ought to be the hearty Prayer of every true-born Engliſhman: Who ſings,

Mind neither French nor Spaniards what they ſay,
Their Words are Wind, they vaniſh quite away:
When Vernon's Cannons do begin to roar,
Then flies Jack Spaniard, and is ſeen no more:
Go on brave Engliſh Boys, and clear the Ground,
Of all the Spaniſh Brood where e'er they'r found:
Let none remain to vex us any more,
Impriſon ſome, lay others in their Gore.

This

PARTRIDGE, 1741.

This Seaſon is Summer's Antagoniſt, being by Nature cold and moiſt; the general Conſtitution of it will be more groſs, dull, foggy, and Rheumatick than ordinary; not admitting of long Froſt, but changeable and unconſtant; which will increaſe Rhumes and Rhumatick Diſeaſes, Gouts, puffing and ſwellings in the Body, Coughs, Cathars, noxious Diſtillations from the Head, tending to Conſumptions, Melancholy, ſore Eyes, Pains and Stoppings in the Breaſt and Lungs; Diſeaſes proceeding from rotten, putrid and corrupt Humours, and many Infirmities incident to Mankind. For

Phœbus withdraws his Luſtre, and his Rays,
He but obliquely on the Earth diſplays.

The Spring Quarter.

BEgins when the Sun apparently enters the firſt Scruple of the Equinoctial and Cardinal Sign Aries, which this Year 1741, falls on Monday March 9, according to the following Calculation.

The Apparent Time of this ſolar Ingreſs is March 9 d 0 h 35′ 20″ 49‴ P M, at which time at London, we have 12° ♈ on the Midheaven, and ♌ 4. 34′ aſcending in the Eaſt, ♄ Retrograde in ♌ his Detriment in the 12th with

♂, in ♋, ♃ in the 11th with ☊, ☿ and ☽ in the 10th, Sun in the 9th, Venus in the 8th, ♅ in the 5th, and ⊕ in the 3d House of Heaven: ♀ is near her Aphelion and ☿ not far from his Perhelion and greateſt Diſtance from the Sun, Occide. This is the Face of Heaven at the Time of this Vernal Ingreſs, Mars ſquares Mercury, and Sol ſquares Jupiter; Sun Trines Saturn, and Moon add ✶ Mars. England's Aſcendent upon the Cuſp of the Houſe of Honour and ☽ therein, he being Lord of the 11th and 3d Houſe, where we have the Preſence of ♃ and ⊕; this ſeems no ſmall Gain to the Engliſh Nation, the Aſcendent of Spain at the Time of this Vernal Ingreſs is intercepted in the 5th Houſe; from this we may boldly ſay,

Proud Spain, the Olive will no longer now
Own thee, but ſeeks t'adorn its Name-ſake's brow:
Take heed your Gold coſt not too dear I pray,
For Wit's ne'er good till 'tis dear bought they ſay:
Two Suns can't ſhine at once, your Day is done,
For we i'th' Weſt now ſee our Riſing Sun.

The Sign Aſcending is what Aſtrologers call fixed, therefore the Actions of the Quarter are like to be more durable; the Sun Lord of the Aſcendent in the 9th, indicates that many proſperous Voyages will be made to the good Advantage of our Trading Merchants, ♃ being Lord of the 9th in a friendly Houſe in Square to the Sun, may poſſibly meet with ſome Storms by the Way; and this Judgment is ſomewhat ſtrengthen'd by the Poſition of ♀ in the 8th, diſpoſing of ☽, and ☽ diſpoſing of ♃ and ♂ in the 12th, the Houſe of Impriſonment.

Infections from the Stars may fall,
But one Above may ſtop them all.

The Summer-Quarter.

THIS Quarter begins at ſuch time as the Sun apparently enters the firſt Scruple of the Tropical Sign Cancer, which happens this Year 1741. on Wedneſday the 10th 10th Day of June, at 43′ 54″ paſt a 11 o'Clock in the Forenoon, under the Meridian of London, making our longeſt Day 16 h 26′ and ſhorteſt Night 7 h 34′; he being now arrived to his greateſt Meridian Altitude, Declination and Amplitude; we have now upon the Medium Cœli 26° of ♊, and 27° of ♈ Aſcending, the Sun, Jupiter, Venus and Mercury, all in Cancer in the 10th, Saturn and Mars in the 11th Houſe, ☽ in the Aſcendent, in Reception with ♀ by Houſe, ♋ near the Cuſp of the 10th, ☿ in ♈ intercepted in the 4th, near which Cuſp we find ♅. Common Signs poſſeſs both the 10th and 1ſt Houſe. This great Synod in the Houſe of Honour, ſhews it is not a Time to play when Drums and Trumpets do awake the Day: Rouſe up then and ſee how Spain's Aſcendent is afflicted with the Preſence of Cauda Draconis, threatning much Theft, Robbery, and Murders, and many Murmurings of the People againſt their Superiors, complaining for want of Trading, and againſt their heavy Burdens of Taxes and Tributes (their making Bricks without Straw) beſides ♂ being in an human Sign, near the Cuſp of the 12th, may be the Forerunner of many Diſorders in thoſe Places ſubject to the Sign.

Now ſeeing the Signs of Heaven are of God, let us take heed that we do not deſpiſe God in his Works. Among the Romans, when the General cauſed a Purple Coat to be hung over his Pavilion, and the Trumpet to ſound, what Soldier in the Camp durſt to neglect it, and not take Notice of it as a Sign of Battle? How much more then the Lord of Hoſts hold forth his Flag, and diſplay his Enſigns, ſignifying what he is about to do; and if not making it known, what it is in Particular, yet ſhewing that he hath ſome ſpecial Work in Hand, how careful ſhould we obſerve theſe Things, and prepare for the Worſt that may happen. But the Blindneſs of carnal Reaſon darkens the Minds of many worthy wiſe Perſons, that they cannot ſee far off, as the Apoſtle ſpeaks in another Caſe. Carnal Reaſon is of too low a Stature, our Thoughts muſt climb the Sycamore Tree like Zacheus; or we muſt get up into our watch Tower, like the Prophet Habakkuk; we muſt take our Standing higher, and look above the whole Creation, and ſeriouſly think of the Creator, God himſelf, the firſt Mover and principal Worker in all theſe Things.

Moreover, Men and Women are ſo generally in love with the World, and do ſo earneſtly deſire, mind, ſeek, and affect earthly Things, either their Pleaſures, Profits, or Earthly hopes, &c. that they have no Leiſure to mind the ſpecial works of God, which are Signs of the times, and give warning of things at hand. Therefore ſaith Solomon Eccleſ. 9, 12. For Man knoweth not his time, as the Fiſh that are taken in an evil Net, and as the Birds that are caught in the Snare, ſo are the Sons of Men ſnared in an evil time, when it falleth ſuddenly upon them. As the Bird wholy minding the Bait, is taken in the Snare which it mindeth not: So the Sons of Men wholy minding the Profits or Pleaſures of this World, heed not the Signs of the times, and ſo are ſnared in an evil time.

The Love of Sin alſo poſſeſſing the Hearts of Men, keeps many from diſcerning the Works of God: It is wonderful to conſider, how the People of Iſrael were beſotted this way, ſo as not to ſee the Viſible and Apparent Signs of the Times, as they had before their Eyes; the Thunderings and Lightnings upon Mount Sinai, the Sound of the Trumpet exceeding loud, the Voice of God ſtriking an awful Terror into their Hearts, the cloudly Pillar every Day, the Pillar of Fire every Night was continually as a ſhining Light before their Faces, the Glory of the Lord often appearing: Bread ſent them down all the ſix Days of the Week from Heaven, the Rock becoming as a Fountain of Water to them in the Wilderneſs, which Water followed them in their ſeveral Stations. Were not theſe Signs to them of an extraordinary time? wherein God was more than in an ordinary Manner preſent with them, and would be ſanctified in them, ſith he brought them ſo near unto himſelf: And yet as it had been but an ordinary time, and as if they had had no more to do with the only true God than other People; nor any more ſpecial Relation to him, as if he had done no more for them than for the Egyptians; they gave themſelves over to divers Sins, (as to foul Idolatry it ſeemeth) in the ſight of Mount

Mount Sinai, to luſting after Quails and Delicates, to commit Fornication with the Daughters of Idolaters, and then alſo to join with them in Spiritual Whoredom and Service of their Idols: Some of them to Ambition, contending with Aaron for the Prieſthood, whom God had called and conſecrated to that Office; ſo ſtrangely had the love of Sin bewitched and blinded their Minds, that without regarding the Signs of the times, they ran into the Snare, and often times brought many ſtroaks upon themſelves.

Under twelve Signs, each Planet of the Seven,
Wander round the Stabilities of Heaven;
The Sun appears by Day, the Moon by Night,
And eke each Star in order do affright
The Vulgar; yea moſt Men are ſtruck with fear,
Admire ſtrange Sights, they know not when or where,
So ſtrange a Thing is Nature's conſtancy,
That it incurs a Conſtant infamy.

Of the Autumnal or Harveſt-Quarter.

THIS Quarter begins at ſuch time as the Sun apparently enters into the firſt Scruple of Libra, which falls on Saturday, Sept. 12, at 8′ 5″ paſt One a Clock in the Morning, under the Meridian of London, making now the Days and Nights equal all the World over, except under the Poles. At London we have 18° of Aries Culminating, and near 9° of Leo Aſcending, Saturn in the Aſcendent, ♄ near the Cuſp thereof. ☉ and ☿ in the third, ♂ and ♀ conjoyn'd in the fourth Houſe, ☽ in the eighth in ♓, ☊ in the eleventh, and ♍ and in the fifth, and ⊕ near the Cuſp of the ſixth Houſe, Saturn, and Mars are in their Detriment, and the Sun in his Fall, being all under the Earth, except ♄ juſt riſing, much News from the Sea, and Sea Affairs; for the ☾ has juſt entered ♓; many ſecret and cloſe Combinations are now upon the Carpet, Spain in a mournful Caſe, for Cauda Draconis is in her Aſcendent, ☌ Preſence near the Cuſp of the Aſcendent, ſignifies (ſays Bonatus) that one Man ſhall Reverence and Honour another, according to their Degree, or Merit, that Men ſhall poſſeſs Honeſty, Upright-Dealing, Faith and Religion; they ſhall ſpend their Time in Diſcipline and good Doctrine, and their Ends and Intentions ſhall be to exerciſe themſelves in thoſe Things which tend to the Salvation of their Souls. So far honeſt Benatus, who, if he had lived in this Age, would have been afraid to have delivered ſuch a Judgment, the contrary of which being in ſo much Requeſt and Practice amongſt us; I need not ſhew you wherein, no rational Man being ignorant thereof: Is not Honeſty, juſt and upright Dealing, Faithfulneſs, Things only in Name amongſt us? And is not Religion very much (yea too too much) uſed but as a Cloak and Cover for all manner of Diſhoneſty, Fraud, Deceit, Couzening, Cheating, Lying, and Diſſembling, and what not, among all Sorts of People, from the Higheſt to the Loweſt. It appeareth by the Configuration of the Stars, that the Spaniards are and like to be in a languiſhing Condition; for in this Quarter ♂ Caſt his hateful Square to Saturn and Jupiter from ♌ and ♏, this brings ſome new Troubles upon Italy, and likewiſe is the Prodomus, and Forerunner of much Miſchief in Turky, and thoſe Places ſubject to the fiery and watry Triplicity. For as theſe three Planets are the moſt Superior, and higheſt in the Heavens, ſo verily, being now in their Triplicity and Houſe (tho' ♄ in his Detriment) they do thereby declare that thoſe Matters and Things here on Earth, repreſented and ſignified by them or unto which they have relation, will be carried in a very high Manner; and ♂ being in ☌ to England's Horoſcope in ♂ with ♀ in the 4th, will protend many Duels, ſly and treacherous Actions committed by Women; for as the Days ſhorten ſo Wickedneſs increaſeth, the long dark Nights giving the Thief and Adulterer an Opportunity of proſecuting their wicked Deſigns. But let them remember, that

We count Time now by Years, Months, Days,
But ſhortly we ſhall reckon other ways.
A thouſand Years in Heaven a Day appears,
One Day in Hell ſeems as a Thouſand Years.
Lord teach us count our Days ſo by thy Grace,
To ſcape this woful, find that happy Place.

Of

Of the Eclipſes of the Sun and Moon that will happen in the Year 1741.

IN this Year 1741, there will be only two Eclipſes, both of the Sun, and inviſible in England.

The firſt will fall on Tueſday, June 2, at 16′ paſt 10 a Clock in the Forenoon; now by reaſon of the Moon's great South Latitude, which being increaſed by her Parallax, proves it will not be ſeen any where in Great-Britain, altho' the Day be ever ſo clear and bright; but our Navigators that ſail to the Eaſt-Indies will ſee it as they ſail in the Southern Seas; the Sun is then Vertical to the Southern Parts of Egypt, Latitude 23° North, and Longitude 26° Eaſt from London. The Planets Venus and Mercury are then with the Sun: Venus is behind the Sun eclipſed by him, for her Latitude is only 11′ N: A. at 16′ paſt 10 a Clock in the Forenoon; her Elongation is only 6′ ---- the Parallax of her Orb 8′ ≻, Mercury is alſo in the remoteſt Part of his Orb from us, but then not ſo near the Sun as Venus. This great Convention of theſe four Planets falls in ♊ London's Aſcendent, we may now expect ſomething more than ordinary to befal the famous City of London; great Cauſes may produce great Effects, and falling in the 10th Houſe too, gives more than uſual, Things very remarkable.

The ſecond Eclipſe of the Sun falls on Friday the 27th Day of November, at 23′ paſt 5 in the Morning. This Eclipſe is over before the Sun Riſe, is the Reaſon it will not be ſeen in England. This is made in 16° ♐, Spain's Aſcendent; here Mercury is alſo with the Sun, but in the lower Part of his Orbit, with near 2° of North Latitude, Retrograde and Perihelion; Mars being Combuſt in ♐, the Sun applying to his Conjunction, affects the Spaniſh Monarchy with many Feuds and Animoſities to ariſe among them, by Reaſon of evil Counſels that attends that haughty People.

Proud Spain look ſharp, the Britiſh Fleets at Sea,
They fear no Storms, nor Tempeſt in their Way;

They'r

They'r reſolute, and bent upon Revenge,
None hinder can, they'll make themſelves Amends,
For the Wrongs done them, by proud Jack the Coward,
Whoſe Words we'll no more take, but by the Dint of Sword.

Aſtrologers tell us, that Eclipſes are the Fore-runners of much Evil to thoſe Kingdoms and Men who have their Midheaven or Aſcendent any-ways concern'd in the Eclipſe. Now as we learn by holy Scripture, that the World had a Beginning, ſo we are aſſur'd it will alſo have an End, but that Day and Hour knoweth no Man, no, not the Angels themſelves; ſo that it were better for us to be prepared for the Approach of it, than curiouſly and ſuperſtitiouſly to be enquiring when it ſhall be, ſeeing it hath not pleaſed God to make it known. It behoves all wiſe Men to confeſs their Ignorance of the Deſolution of the World, ſince neither the Son of Man (as he was Man) nor to Angels, that Knowledge was revealed. And we are commanded not to pry too far in theſe or ſuch like Myſteries which concerns not our Salvation. Now ſeeing that all Things muſt be diſſolved, and that the prophetical Scriptures foretelling the Signs that ſhall be Fore-runners or Harbingers of that dreadful and terrible Day, are accompliſhed, ſo that in all probability the ſixt Day of the World's Week is near expired, What manner of Perſons ought we to be in all holy Converſation and Godlineſs, looking for, and haſtning unto the Coming of the Day of God, wherein the Heavens being on Fire ſhall be diſſolved, and the Elements ſhall melt with fervent Heat? 2 Pet. iii. 11, 12.

Theſe Signs the World's Combuſtion ſhall fore-run,
Arms claſhing Trumpets, from the riſing Sun,
Moſt horrid Fragors, heard by all; this Frame,
Of Nature then ſhall feed the greedy Flame.
Men, Cities, Floods, and Seas, by rav'nous Luſt
Of Fire devour'd, ſhall all diſſolve to Duſt.

Let us now at laſt repent with Niniveh, and amend our Ways, and ſpeedily call upon a merciful God, leſt he ſuddenly conſume us with Sodom and Gomorrah, in the Heat of his Wrath and Indignation. Let us without Delay, turn unto the Lord, asking Remiſſion of our manifold Sins committed againſt him, ſo Iniquity ſhall not be our Ruin. Let the Wicked forſake his Way, and the unrighteous Man his Thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have Mercy upon him, and to our God for he will abundantly pardon, Iſa. lv. 7.

of

When gracious God by ſacred Word,
Vouchſafes to call from curſed Courſe,
O happy we Ten Thouſand Times,
If feeling Hearts do yield Remorſe.
But if Contempt of offer'd Grace
Accuſe us, craving Sentence Juſt;
Then curſed we Ten Thouſand Times,
For Hell remains, when hence we muſt.
Conſider this my Country dear,
And mark it England heedily,
The Lord now ſpeaks, then take thy good,
Or look for Vengeance ſpeedily.

On the 16th Day of April, this Year, there will be celebrated a famous Conjunction of the two Infortunes, Saturn and Mars, in the fiery Regal Sign Leo, thoſe Places and People under that Triplicity, (as England, Spain and Italy) are, will feel the direct Effects of their Influence; they are Evening Stars, and may be ſeen N. Weſterly, after Sun-ſet, if the Air be clear; Mars will be Elevated above Saturn one Degree and 23′ pleaſant to behold.

And upon the 25th Day of June, will be celebrated a notable Conjunction of the two great Fortunes, Jupiter and Venus in the Tropical Sign Cancer; Jupiter is in his Exaltation, but they are too near the Sun to be ſeen with the naked Eye; Venus will paſs over Jupiter.

Alſo on July 11, Venus will paſs over Saturn; they are Evening Stars, and may be ſeen after Sun-ſet, if the Air be favourable. And on September 15, Venus will ſalute the fiery Planet Mars in his own Houſe; they are Evening Stars and may be ſeen very near together, W. S W. if the Air be clear, to the Satisfaction of the curious Obſerver.
